

ACCEPTABLE COURSES FOR

SUBSTITUTE LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

The State of Nevada requires a minimum of 62 semester credits, with 6 semester credits in professional education, or a bachelor's degree or higher degree earned through a regionally accredited college/university, to be eligible for a K-12 substitute license.

Listed below are some examples of courses considered Professional Education by the Department of Education:

Anthropology Department

- Cultural Anthropology
- Multicultural Education
- Social Anthropology

Child Development Department

- Child and Family Guidance
- Exceptional Child
- Human Growth and Development

Education Department

- Nevada School Law (also satisfies the Nevada School Law licensing requirement)
- Any course offered through the Education Department from a regionally accredited college or university.

Psychology Department

- Adolescent Psychology
- Child Psychology
- Development Psychology
- Educational Psychology
- General Psychology
- Instructional Psychology
- Learning Psychology
- Personal and Social Adjustment
- Social Psychology

Special Education Department

- Introduction to Students with Disabilities
- Education of Students with Learning Disabilities
- The Mildly Handicapped Student in the Regular Classroom
- Special Education Techniques in Regular Setting
- Parent Counseling
- Introduction to Special Education